

Reading Fair

January 30, 2023

Dear Students and Parents,

It's time for the JPS Reading Fair! The purpose of the competition is to provide students the opportunity to showcase their favorite fiction or nonfiction books. The goal of the reading fair is to enhance and encourage reading at all grade levels and to allow students to collaborate with their families and peers. There are three levels of competition: classroom, school, and district.

The complete Reading Fair Guidelines are available on the Obama Magnet website at www.jackson.k12.ms.us/Obama. The guidelines include a very helpful tool for project planning to make sure that all of the correct elements are on the board.

Obama Magnet School Reading Fair schedule:

Tuesday, February 20 – Projects due to school

Tuesday, February 20 – Thursday, February 22 – Classroom presentations (top 5 from each class progress to school-wide reading fair)

Friday, February 23 – School-wide Reading Fair (First place winners from each division will advance to the District Reading Fair on March 8.)

Please remember these important details:

- Students in grades K-2 may ONLY compete in the fiction category.
- Students in grades 3
